The Federal Election Commission requires that all of these statements are true for anyone contributing to the campaign:

- I am a US Citizen or Permanent Resident. - I am 18 years of age or older. - I am donating my own money.
- I am not under contract with the Federal Government. - I am not making this contribution in the name of another person.

Contributions to Friends of Dave Brat, Inc. are not tax deductible as charitable donations for federal income tax purposes. Federal law requires political committees to use their best efforts to obtain and report the name, mailing address, occupation and employer of each individual whose contributions aggregate in excess of $200 in an election cycle. Contributions from corporations, federal government contractors, and foreign nationals without permanent residency status are prohibited.

Under federal law, individuals may contribute a maximum of $2,700 for the general election, regardless of whether they have contributed up to the maximum of $2,700 for the primary election. Couples may contribute $5,400 per election cycle and may make contributions from a joint account, but in those cases, each contributor must sign the check or a statement that accompanies the contribution describing the joint attribution (see below). Qualified federal PACs may contribute a maximum of $5,000 per election.
